Our strategy is hard to resist...

The Leigh Agency is a full service advertising agency offering a wide range of integrated marketing communication services including brand identity, event planning, eco-consulting, website development, strategic marketing and social networking.

We take pride in exceeding any and all expectations with the quality of our work and find importance in working with our clients as a team in order to customize services and strategies that are specifically catered to meet your needs. We understand that if we do our job effectively and efficiently, that our clients will share the same success with their business. After all, isn't that the goal?

Contact President, Jodi Leigh, at (703) 850-5190 or jodi@leighenergy.com and let's discuss how together, we can make your business stunning-Leigh successful!
